From the Rectory

When I walked outside on the morning of Storm Eunice my first thought was 'This is surely a strong wind but is this what everyone is talking about?' And then I saw the large tree blocking the road not far outside my home in North Cadbury. Something of the reality hit home to me then.

All this of course is nothing compared to the loss suffered by those who were caught up in the centre of the storm. I find the image of the famous spire on the top of St Thomas' in Wells falling to the ground particularly poignant.

But it did help me to put myself in the shoes of Jesus' disciples when they were caught in a little boat on the Sea of Galilee as a sudden storm blew up. This reading from Luke's gospel happened to be the one set for the Sunday after Storm Eunice. As the boat began to fill up with water not unnaturally they were terrified.

And where was Jesus? He was with them in the boat but asleep. Why was He not awake and taking action? Did He really care about what was happening to them? And so they woke Him up with the cry 'Master, Master, we are perishing!'.

This cry for help was rewarded by Jesus' action as He commanded the storm to be still and it immediately ceased. And yet for all that Jesus questioned His disciples with the words 'Where is your faith?'

At a certain level of course the disciples had demonstrated their faith by crying out to Jesus in their time of need. Our prayers at times of crisis can be similarly direct and they too can find an immediate answer from God. And yet Jesus had shown the depth of His faith by being asleep in the middle of the storm, trusting all the time in God's power to protect Him.

And we can find a connection between this deep trust in God and Jesus' pattern of prayer and worship. Yes, powerful prayers were apparent at times of crisis as in the storm. But these were not 'one offs'. Rather Jesus was continuously praying to and worshipping God. He would go up a mountain on His own to pray to God and He could spend the whole night in prayer. These were not occasions of crisis but Jesus recognised His continual need to know what God wanted and to be refreshed by God's presence.

Lent is a special time in the church's year when we are encouraged to draw close to God. This might happen by reading a book as Anna suggested in the last edition of Excalibur, by being especially generous in some way or by giving up something that matters to us. It can be a way of building that deep trust in God which we see demonstrated in Jesus' life and ministry. And when the storms of life come (as they will) it is this deep trust which will sustain us.

With my love and prayers,
Tristram

Time to get walking again!

At this time of year we start to think about the mud drying up and getting out to walk in the beautiful English Countryside again, but where to find new and interesting walks?

Walking in Somerset (part of the Walking in England website) has hundreds of walks to download and print, free, it also has books of walks, details of all the walking groups in the county and much more. Whether you want to walk on your own or with a group all the information is there in one place -

www.walkinginengland.co.uk/somerset

John Harris (the custodian of the website) said 'There is so much walking information on the web but it is difficult to find. Walking in Somerset has brought it together in one place so whether you are walking from home, or away on holiday, you will be able to find a walk suitable for you'.

With walks from half a mile to twelve miles plus long, and a note of suitability for pushchairs and wheelchairs, everyone can find a walk to enjoy. So home or away, check out the websites and get walking!

From the Assistant Bishop

“Lord, when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you?”

For any would be follower of Jesus, the teaching in Matthew 25 is surely some of the most challenging in the whole of the New Testament. What sort of disciples are we called to be? Will the world recognise Christ in us both in our words and in our actions?

Faced with persecution, with the temptation to instant popularity and self-aggrandisement, Jesus remains true to himself and to his call to be a servant leader. This, he says, is what is required of anyone who would follow me: “to love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself”.

While we may talk a great deal about being a welcoming Church, the reality is much harder to achieve. To welcome is not to want the stranger to become just like us. It's about valuing the gifts they bring and about being willing to be changed ourselves by the new life coming among us. It begins, as Jesus began, by seeking to serve the stranger's needs and, to do that, we first have to listen.

Some of the harshest of Jesus' words were directed to the religious people of his day, too occupied with their own agendas, their own self-righteousness, to notice the stranger in their midst. It is only when we are prepared to leave the security of our own home, “launching out into the deep”, going onto the other's territory, can we begin to feel just how strange and at times threatening the community of faith can be to the outsider.

Lent, with its invitation to de-clutter our busy lives, brings also the promise of new life. Let's use this God-given time to pray that our hearts and the life of our communities may be opened such that we can truly welcome the stranger as a sister or brother in Christ.

With my blessing,

† Trevor

Bishop Trevor Willmott is an Honorary Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of Bath and Wells.

The promise of new life

OUR BUSES ARE UNDER THREAT

April 2022 was meant to augur in a new era for our buses. It was the month when the £3 billion as part of Bus Back Better, National Strategy for Buses for England, could be used to improve bus services. People could be invited to abandon their cars and opt for the ‘greener’ option of going by bus on journeys to nearby towns and villages.

To improve buses across the county, Somerset had put in a bid for £163 million of Bus Back Better money. That was the sum of money Somerset needed because Somerset bus services currently are the worst rated of any county in England. But the Bus Back Better fund has been oversubscribed 8 times by all the bids from across England and so it’s unknown how much money Somerset might get. But it’s unlikely to get anything like what Somerset needs.

The 2 years of Covid with endless warnings not to use buses has seen bus passenger numbers down 40% on pre Covid levels. This has meant the Government has had to step in and subsidise bus services in order to keep them running. To fund this the Government has diverted more than half of the £3 billion pot allocated for transforming our bus services to just maintain our current bus services.

Worse still, the Government has still not said whether it will keep funding our existing bus services from April.

If it doesn’t, then without this subsidy, bus services across the county (including here in Somerset) could “fall off the side of the cliff” (as said by Wera Hobhouse, Bath MP). It’s been estimated 30% of bus services would go. Some bus services could even disappear completely.

Without this Covid Bus Recovery Grant, a leading bus operator has said, “The bus sector is hurtling towards disaster.”

So what can we do?

Could you please ... today ... send an email (doesn’t need to be long) to the Government Buses Minister demanding that the Covid-19 Bus Recovery Grant funding is continued beyond April. Send it to BARONESS VERE OF NORBITON (Buses Minister) - email verec@parliament.uk.

Also copy your email to your MP: DAVID WARBURTON (Somerton and Frome) - email david.warburton.mp@parliament.uk

Please also copy in Somerset Bus Partnership to any emails too.

Additionally, if you should speak to any of the candidates for the Somerset Unitary Council May 5th elections, please ask them what their plans are to protect and improve our bus services here in Somerset. There’s never been a time when our bus services in Somerset have been at so much risk.

Bored with Retirement?

People who retired early (before the age of 66) are going back to work. A study has found that the reason is because they miss having a sense of daily purpose in their lives, or they miss the companionship of work colleagues.

A recent study by Aviva found that people who want to retire early do so primarily because they want to have more freedom while still being fit enough to enjoy it. But sometimes, it seems, retirement is not as much fun as they had expected it to be.

INTERVIEW - A place of acceptance

Oosman Tegally worships at Christ Church, Bath. He shares his thoughts on welcome and generosity.

What does welcome mean to you?

Acceptance. I have gone into some places in the past and the faces tell whether you are accepted or if you are not and if you are received well then that to me is welcome. I have visited many places, many churches, and the moment I came into Christ Church I thought, yes this is the place I'd like to worship and be part of.

Have you experienced feeling unwelcome?

Oh yes, there have been times when comments have been made because of my ethnicity. It's what they perceive, what they see, they're not looking inside to see what kind of a person you are, and I have been very hurt about that and I have never been back again. It's sad really because someone who could have been part of that community, cannot be when that happens.

How can we make people feel more included and less like an outsider?

We have to accept the person as they are, no matter what. It is accepting them for what they are, who they are and be accepting from both sides. Inclusivity means anybody - LGBT, disabled, learning difficulties and more.

How can we be more generous?

Generosity is being there for somebody who needs you, it doesn't matter in what form. It comes from the heart and it's what you feel capable of doing, not necessarily finances, it can be in many different ways, moral support, being there, a listening ear.

Wordsearch for March

March brings us Lent and Mothering Sunday. Lent is a time of spiritual self-assessment as we prepare for Easter. It is a time to turn to God, and grow closer to him. Why God made Mums

These were the answers given by some seven- year-olds...

Why did God make mothers?

1. She's the only one who knows all the passwords we use online.
2. Mostly to clean the house, I think.
3. To help us out of there when we were getting born.

How did God make mothers?

1. He used dirt, just like for the rest of us.
2. I've heard it was some amazing experiment on men that got out of hand.
3. God made my mum just the same like He made me. He just used bigger parts.

Why did God give you to your mother, and not to some other mum?

1. We're related.
2. God knew she likes me a lot more than other kids' mums like me.
3. Other mums wouldn't understand about me being afraid in the dark.

What kind of little girl was your mum?

1. My mum has always been my mum and none of that other stuff.
2. I don't know because I wasn't there, but my guess would be pretty bossy.
3. They say she used to be nice.

What did your mum need to know about your dad before she married him?

1. His last name.
2. She had to know his background, like has he put anything too disgusting on Facebook?
3. She needed to check out his bank account, to make sure he could buy her clothes.

Why did your mum marry your dad?

1. My dad makes the best spaghetti in the world. And my mum eats a lot.
2. She got too old to do anything else with him.
3. My grandma says that no one will ever know.

Who's the boss at your house?

1. Dad is, because mum says so. She just helps by reminding him what to do each day.
2. Mum. You can tell by room inspection. She sees the stuff under the bed.
3. Dad was, until Mum found what he had written on Facebook about Granny.

What's the difference between mums & dads?

1. Mums work at work and work at home and dads just go to work at work.
2. Mums know how to talk to teachers without scaring them.
3. Dads are taller and stronger, but they panic when the dishwasher overflows.

What does your mum do in her spare time?

1. She takes my brother to football and my sister to violin lessons.
2. To hear her tell it, it's like she pays bills all day long.
3. I think that must happen during the night, because then she just lies there and sleeps.

What would it take to make your mum perfect?

1. On the inside she's already perfect. Outside, I think some kind of plastic surgery.
2. Diet. You know, her hair. I'd diet, maybe blue.
3. She would understand why the dog needs to sleep with me at night.

If you could change one thing about your mum, what would it be?

1. She has this weird thing about me keeping my room clean. I'd get rid of that.
2. I'd make my mum smarter. Then she would know it was my sister who did it and not me.
3. She'd be more relaxed about me not doing my homework.

Latest details of services in the Camelot Parishes can be found on the Camelot Parishes website <http://camelotparishes.co.uk/> and on each parish's A Church Near You webpages.

The form that discipleship takes is conditioned by the historic times in which one lives, as well as by the context of an individual's life; but the underlying principle remains the same: each of us is called by love to love; called out of our narrow individualism and our small private world, to allow ourselves to be 'turned around' by the allurements of God, and to live for Him, as Jesus did.

Our meeting on February 17th was about Olive trees. Caradoc Doy told us that it is possible to grow them in the UK. In fact he has grown his own and even planted one in Glastonbury Abbey garden which is now huge.

He told us the history of olive trees in the Bible particularly and the fact that they mean Peace. He has named his own cultivar Peace in fact.

The oldest olive tree in the UK is in Chelsea Physic Garden, it is over 100 years old and does well in London which has its own microclimate. Olives can be grown elsewhere but do need to be fed. They prefer to be planted in the ground but can survive in pots. The main thing to remember is that the ground must have good drainage. If the soil is clay and gets waterlogged then they must have gravel in a mound under the tree and even around the trunk to aid this. Olive trees can survive in a cold winter and they grow very well in a hot summer. In this country they should be pruned in summer. If they shed their leaves it means that they need feeding but leaf loss in winter is normal. They are of course evergreen.

We normally meet on the third Wednesday of every month at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. We're always delighted to have new members, so please do come along and join us. Non-members and guests are also welcome for a fee of £2.

Last month's Café was one of the busiest ever: it was great to see so many people. Jean Tatham kindly brought her lace-making work to display and discuss. We are now looking into whether there is enough local interest to begin a regular Arts and Crafts group in the hall? This could start simply as a meeting to share a cup of tea with others while you knit/sketch/lace-make/etc and, over time, develop into something more. If you are, or might be, interested please send your ideas to

Village.Hall@SouthCadbury.org.uk

PILATES & YOGA We now have two weekly Pilates classes on Wednesdays: 11.30am and 6.00pm. Spring

An acrostic poem

(Taking each letter of the title word to start the next line of the verse)

Spring has arrived
 with armfuls of blossom,
 Petals of every colour and hue,
 Rain and sun caressing the earth
 Inspiring spring bulbs
 to come into view.
 Now is the time of new beginnings,
 Giving us pleasure all season through.

Selah

All this beauty God bestows upon the earth for us to share.
 So let us treasure such delights and tread this world with love and care.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Luke 15:11-32

Jesus told stories about a lost sheep and a lost coin, then one about a man with two sons. The younger son said to his father...

I want my share of what I'll inherit from you now!

So the father divided his property between his sons.

The younger son took his money and went to another country.

Then his money ran out and there was a famine.

The only job he could get was feeding pigs.

He was so hungry he would have eaten their food.

Then he came to his senses -

I'll go to my father, say sorry, and ask him for a job as a workman!

He set off for home.

His father saw him coming, ran to him and hugged him.

Father, I am so sorry. I am not good enough to be your son...

But his father sent servants to get clothes for his son and prepare a feast to celebrate his return.

The older son came back from work and heard the noise.

Your brother has returned and your father is having a feast

The older son was so angry he wouldn't go into the house..

so his father came out to see him.

For years I've slaved for you and you've given me nothing. He returns after wasting your money and you give him a feast!

My son, all I have is yours, but we should celebrate because he was lost and now he has been found.
