From the Rectory

As we look forward to the summer and hopefully the prospect of more warm weather we are preparing to welcome to our churches a student who is looking to be ordained. So if you see someone you don't recognise at a service in the next month or so that may well be her!

Her name is Coelette Parks. She lives in Yeovil and has practised as a dentist. She has already had extensive experience of church leadership through being a churchwarden and working with young families. The purpose of her placement is to introduce her to a different context of Christian ministry from the one in which she is familiar.

As I prepare for her placement I am reminded of the role encouragement plays in the Christian life. We all need encouragement. If we look back at our lives we will no doubt find many people who have offered us encouragement and to whom we owe a debt of gratitude. They may have befriended us when we were starting a new job and felt nervous and insecure. They may have helped us to keep on going when we were facing what seemed like insurmountable difficulties. Or they may have been really good trainers able to pass on what they had learnt to others.

In the Bible, encouragement is viewed as a very important quality. God is described as the God of encouragement (Romans 15:5). The gift of prophecy is one of encouragement (1 Corinthians 14:3). And perhaps most of all we find encouragement embodied within a person, Barnabas, whose very name means 'Son of Encouragement' (Acts 4:36).

Although Barnabas is a well known figure in the early church perhaps an even more famous one is the apostle Paul. And yet it is worth remembering that had it not been for Barnabas' ministry of encouragement we might well never have heard of Paul and his ministry. For Paul had been leading the persecution of Christians in the early church when he was dramatically converted on the road to Damascus. Not surprisingly the other believers were very suspicious, wondering whether Paul's conversion was genuine or whether it was a trap being laid for them. And at this point Barnabas vouched for Paul's genuineness and secured his acceptance by the rest of the church.

Later on Barnabas and Paul went off on missionary journeys together. At first it was Barnabas as the senior of the two who took the lead. But as the journeys progressed Barnabas was content to take a supporting role and to encourage Paul in his own leadership.

Surely this is a reminder to us that to be effective we do not necessarily need to be in charge. Someone who has the humility to support and encourage others can be just as important although maybe not quite so well known. So we all need to grow in this gift of encouragement.

*With my love and prayers,
Tristram*

Celebrating Lay Ministries

On Saturday, July 2nd, we will be gathering in Wells Cathedral for a celebration of the gifts of all those who play a part in the life of the church and the community. The Lay Ministries Celebration also recognises those marking a milestone in their personal journey of faith and have completed one of our lay ministries courses.

Jill Perrett, Developing Ministries Adviser says, “We are delighted to be able to host this celebration of gifts and lay ministry in Wells Cathedral. It promises to be a joyous occasion. All our gifts will be reflected in this wonderfully creative service. There will be different styles of music and worship, the Weston-super-Mare dance worship group will perform to the worship song ‘So Will I’, and we’ll also create our own ‘meadow of hope’.”

There will also be testimonies from people who have completed a course, from those who have explored their personal faith on ‘Exploring Spirituality’, to those looking to move on to a more defined role, like being Lay Worship Assistants, Lay Pastoral Assistants, or Chaplains.

Alan Cook, one of the speakers, says, “You never stop learning and the courses offered by the diocese are well prepared and exciting. They help you to have more understanding of how you feel to be a Christian. You don’t need a degree or anything like that, you just need to be the person God made you to be.”

Why not say ‘So will I!’ and join us at the celebration of Lay Ministries or find out more about the lay courses on offer? bathandwells.org.uk/lmc

'Church of England has good skills', says new Bishop

The next Bishop of Bath and Wells, Dr Michael Beasley, has said that the Church of England learned valuable lessons during the pandemic. "There's been a huge amount that we've seen in our response to an emergency. It shows we have a flexibility and a resilience and an ability to respond to situations that we might not have known we have, but now we do."

He said that such resilience will be needed, to cope in these "challenging times", with the world still emerging from the pandemic, the war in Ukraine, and the cost-of-living crisis, "which is only to become increasingly urgent."

He said: "Addressing these issues is going to demand everyone's faith and experiences, their creativity and skill."

From the Bishop

Half-way through the year already! Midsummer's day past. It hardly seems possible. We have now had Bishop Michael's election as our new Diocesan Bishop confirmed and we have joined together in a Day of Prayer to mark this new chapter in the life of the Diocese of Bath and Wells. Praying with hope and joy as we look forward to the next part of the journey together, and with realism as we recognise the challenges we face especially with our limited financial resources.

However, we are rich in other ways. The missional and ministerial resources amongst us are strong. We continue to see people drawn to exploring ordained ministry and yet an even greater number seeking new lay ministerial opportunities. Reader training is beginning to increase once more. Chaplaincies of all shapes and sizes are developing. Recently we introduced chaplaincy to the courts in Taunton, and Weston-Super-Mare is following after. Churchwardens in this past month have demonstrated their commitment to service at the annual Visitation services.

And there are loads more ways in which the wealth of the Church is seen, through pastoral care, worship leading, and children and youth work, to name but a few. Our deaneries are working together on plans for local shared ministry focussing on the particular needs, context and gifts of each place and community. It is an opportunity for us to note God's abundant goodness to us and the gift of the people with whom we gather.

A wealth of ministries

I am looking forward to sharing in our celebration of all the lay ministries across the diocese. It is an opportunity to hear the stories of one another, to reflect on creative possibilities and ways you can join in. Please respond to the invitation to come along!

Every blessing

✝ Bishop Ruth

INTERVIEW -

The streets are paved with prayer

One of the speakers at the Celebration of Lay Ministries (see page 6) is Dave Knight, Chairman for Taunton Street Pastors. We talking to him about his ministry.

What are Street Pastors?

Street Pastors are trained volunteers who care about their community and patrol their local area on weekend evenings. Taunton team's 75 volunteers cover Taunton, Bridgwater and Wellington.

What do they do?

Most of the time it is simply a case of being present, talking to those who want to talk. We are not there to preach but we do talk about Jesus a lot – it's just that we let the other person lead the conversation rather than us pushing it.

What about the other times?

Every night there is a potential for challenging situations, which may or not be realised. We know that we save about two or three lives a year and prevent a similar number of rapes, but you can never be totally sure. Our priority is looking after those who are alone, perhaps after becoming isolated from friends, who are in a potentially vulnerable position.

Is it safe for you?

We take safety very seriously and our training is very thorough. We know what to do, and we always stay together. When I first heard of Street Pastors I was reluctant to get involved as I felt it wasn't safe, but it really is. Three years later I heard a talk on Street Pastors at my church and responded - 10 years on I'm still doing it.

Why do you do it?

It is amazing ministry! It may sound serious but we really do have a ball out there. You are in this hotspot of activity, the front line, and where street pastors have been going for some time, those streets have been paved with prayer. You are taking all that power and presence of God with you. It has to be seen to be believed.

A Very Regal Celebration

At North Cadbury we are very proud of our church school status, so it seemed only fitting that we celebrate and honour our Queen's Platinum Jubilee as our Monarch, Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England. Therefore, we knew we needed to make it a memorable and fitting occasion for all involved. On a dry but blustery day just before half-term the school was bedecked in royal bunting, the children wore their party clothes (red, white, blue or regal purple) and we had a very lovely street party.

Our special guests from North Cadbury and surrounding villages were able to help us toast the Queen and her wonderful service to our country, as well as provide anecdotes of her coronation 70 years ago!

Our families then arrived for some Union Jack kite making before heading up onto the school field to fly their kites and have some fun. It really was a wonderful afternoon and one that the children will remember for a long time.

Sea Sunday Wordsearch

10th July brings us Sea Sunday, the day when Christian churches remember, pray and give thanks for the more than 1.5 million merchant seafarers and fishermen worldwide. If seafarers seem irrelevant to your daily life, think again: 90 per cent of everything you buy in the shops comes to you by sea. Merchant seafarers quite literally keep our global economy afloat. Yet it is a tough life, far from loved ones. Merchant ships are harsh working environments, never mind the threat of piracy or even shipwreck.

To help the seafarers, a worldwide network of port chaplains has sprung up. They offer hospitality and friendship, as well as practical, emotional and spiritual support, providing almost a 'home from home' in hundreds of ports, in more than 50 countries. You might wish to support one of these three well-known societies: The Mission to Seafarers (Anglican), The Apostolate of the Sea (Roman Catholic), and The Sailors' Society (inter-denominational).

NORTH CADBURY & DISTRICT GARDENING CLUB

The speaker at our April meeting was Paul Stickland from Sherborne who owns and runs a flower farm with his wife. He finds he rarely needs to use anything other than a good phone camera for his photography. Arrangement must-haves are elegant or characterful foliage and lush toning flowers: Aquilegia foliage, thalictrum leaves, cow parsley, cornflower, Icelandic poppies, dahlias, veronicas, pink damascus, larkspur, celosia and others including peony make very good photos and of course bouquets. Light and lighting are important and evening sunset and earlier is a good time. Once again this was an interesting and informative talk.

There will be no meeting in July or August but a summer gathering with cream teas on August 13th at 2.00pm in the Village Hall Garden.

We welcome guests and new members to our very interesting talks. The next one is on September 21st and is entitled 'English Vines and Vineyards'.

We normally meet on the third Wednesday of every month at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. We're always delighted to have new members, so please do come along and join us. Non-members and guests are also welcome for a fee of £2.

NORTH CADBURY WOMEN'S GROUP

The Women's Group usually meets on the 4th Wednesday of the month in the Reading Room at North Cadbury village hall, with an annual outing on the day of the June meeting.

However, our visit to Frith House, Stalbridge in June has had to be provisionally rescheduled to 27th July or possibly the week prior, depending on numbers. All are welcome to join us; please book with Pauline Moylan in advance to help venue with numbers/catering: email pmoylan1@gmail.com or tel 440775 - cost is £10 including coffee and cake, all proceeds to the National Gardens Scheme.

Platinum Jubilee Celebrations at North Cheriton.

We were blessed by fine weather for our street party. There were lots of fun and games for all. A big thank you to all those who worked hard to organise it (you know who you are!) and thank you to those who attended and made it all worthwhile.

The event was rounded off with a Thanksgiving Service in church on Sunday morning.

PLATINUM JUBILEE BEACON

Around 450 people descended on South Cadbury to enjoy Montgomery Cheeseburgers, refreshments, entertainment from Yeovilton Military Wives Choir before being led by piper Ralph Kerr to the top of Cadbury Castle for the lighting of a huge Beacon that could be seen for miles around.

There are many people to thank including the Montgomery team for building the beacon, surely one of the biggest in the country, and providing transport up and down the hill. Yeovilton Military Wives Choir and Ralph Kerr made the event extra-special and on behalf of everyone who enjoyed the occasion, we thank all the fabulous volunteers who organised and ran the event.

PLATINUM JUBILEE BIG PICNIC

On the final day of the celebrations, the village enjoyed a special day coming together to enjoy the Big Picnic in the playing fields and enjoying the community spirit that the village is lucky to have.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in
Luke chapter 2 verses 41 to 51

Every year Joseph and Mary went to Jerusalem for the Passover festival with their family and friends. This year Jesus was twelve.

The women and children went in front to set the pace

Next year, Jesus, you'll be walking at the back with the men.

The Passover feasting lasted eight days...

..and then they set off for home again

but without Jesus.

Mary and Joseph didn't find out until the evening

I thought he was with you!

So they walked back to Jerusalem and started searching for Jesus....

Sorry, I haven't seen him.

..and the next day,

then on the third day

they went to the temple

Look!

He was talking with the teachers.

You must be very proud of your clever son

But Mary was not happy.

How could you treat your father and I like this?

Didn't you know I'd be here?

I needed to be where my birth father, God, is working.

Mary thought about this all the way home

...and all her life.
