From the Rectory

As I listened to prayers which were offered recently in our benefice I was reminded of how much there is to be concerned about in the world at the moment. Thankfully, there seems to be a little bit of hope in the conflict between Russia and Ukraine in the form of a grain deal but nevertheless many lives are still being lost and it presents a wider threat to peace. And then there is inflation with its impact on the cost of living, a new Prime Minister to be chosen, the recent heatwave with its fires and warnings of climate change. And this is before we even come on to anything more local or any cares we have in our personal lives.

And so I do look forward to going away in August as maybe others of you are doing. It will be a welcome break.

On the other hand, however good and refreshing a holiday may be can it really be a complete answer to the wearing effects of the cares of life? Indeed can we ever really get away from these wherever we may be?

I have found one psalm which I have studied recently to be instructive in this respect. It is Psalm 46. Its setting is one of undoubted danger and peril. The earth itself seems to be about to change, the mountains are shaking and trembling and seem to be transplanted into the middle of the sea where the waters are roaring and foaming.

It is a scene of war and national upheaval. The future of kingdoms is uncertain in a time of uproar.

And even in the work of God there is nothing calm or quiet. Yes, God does bring about the end of wars and yet this is accompanied by desolation. Strong and powerful actions are necessary in order to end violence. The bow is broken, the spear is shattered and shields are burnt with fire.

But then into all this devastation and chaos God speaks. 'Be still and know that I am God!'. This is a dramatic contrast. God's voice is one which commands peace and stillness, which assures us of God's presence and gives us a promise of God's complete protection and security.

The challenge of Psalm 46 is not to find God's rest and peace by escaping from the troubles of life. Rather it is to find God's help and strength right in the middle of these troubles. As the conclusion to Psalm 46 puts it, 'God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.'

As we journey onwards through this summer may we indeed find God's rest and peace whatever challenges our outward circumstances might present to us.

*With my love and prayers,
Tristram*

Bible a “Life Saver” for Ukrainian Soldiers

Since the war broke out more than six months ago, Bible Society has been making the Bible available to soldiers as well as civilians in Ukraine.

Recently, Serhii, the commander of a military unit, told Bible Society colleagues in Ukraine how vital the Bible is to his troops. He said, “It is very important for soldiers to have the Bible. Things are very tough at times and many soldiers are praying to God.

“They may have never attended a church before. They may not have believed in God before. But now they are turning to Him. Many of them treat the Bible as a life-saver.

“I have a friend, an officer. He also received a Bible from our chaplain. Sometimes he faces situations that seem to be desperate. He turns to the Bible....and he says, ‘You wouldn’t believe it. Every time I find an answer. The Bible has a way out! I do as the Bible says and everything works well.’”

Serhii added, “So, for those people who are facing enormous pressures on the frontlines, who experience hardship, both physical and moral, when they have this Bible in their pocket, when it gets very hard, a soldier can open it and find words that he needs to hear at that very moment. It is very important. Thank you!”

A teacher was observing her classroom of young children while they drew. As she came to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was. The girl replied, “I’m drawing God.”

The teacher said gently, “But no one knows what God looks like.”

Without missing a beat, the girl replied with perfect composure: “They will in a minute.”

From the Assistant Bishop

I'm new around here. Following retirement from ordained ministry last year Somerset has become my adopted county and Bath and Wells my adopted diocese. Sally and I are delighted to be full time now in this lovely and stimulating area. We join many of you who have been part of this diocese and county for a lifetime or for decades, and also some who have recently arrived like us.

We have chosen to be here. Others arrive here because of a range of circumstances and decisions. Perhaps sometimes the journey seems haphazard or inexplicable. Some people come here as refugees fleeing persecution, injustice, or war, especially from Syria, Afghanistan and Ukraine. They arrive with uncertainty, and often anxiety or trepidation in an unknown and entirely new place far from home.

In our churches and Christian communities, we are committed to welcome everyone – those settled here and also those who are newer. We know we are sisters and brothers in God's family, regardless of background, nationality or indeed any other thing which distinguishes us. God's family is the family of humankind. It's not that we pick and choose whom to call family; we share the same flesh and blood.

St Paul tells us that each one of us has been adopted into that family which is divine and human. God sent Jesus "so that we might receive adoption as children" enabling us to be gifted with the Holy Spirit. (Galatians 4: 4-7)

Adopted by God

We don't belong out of personal choice, in contrast to my decision to chose here as my adopted diocese and community. We don't pick and choose our ultimate citizenship. God chooses and calls us without us desiring or deserving such adoption. That's why, following God's adoption of us, we never select who to welcome into our church or parish. All belong and all are welcome without hesitation.

We have been adopted into God's family and we are thrilled to adopt everyone into our communities. Thank you for welcoming me!

the PARABLE of the SOWER

JESUS OFTEN TOLD STORIES WITH
HIDDEN MEANINGS

ONE WAS ABOUT A FARMER WHO
SOWED SOME SEEDS

MOST FARMERS DIDN'T BURY THEIR SEEDS IN THE GROUND. INSTEAD THEY THREW THEM IN THE AIR!

THE FARMER HOPED THEY WOULD TAKE ROOT JUST WHERE THEY LANDED

BUT SOME SEED WAS EATEN BY BIRDS!

SOME SEED FELL ON ROCKS, BUT
THE PLANTS DIED WHEN THE HOT
SUN SHONE DOWN

OTHER SEEDS TOOK ROOT,
BUT WERE QUICKLY
STRANGLED BY WEEDS

SOME SEED FELL ON GOOD SOIL. IT TOOK ROOT AND GREW AND GREW!

SOON THERE WAS A FINE FIELD OF WHEAT!

JESUS EXPLAINED THAT THE SEED ARE 'WORD OF GOD' AND
WE SHOULD LET THAT WORD
'GROW' IN OUR HEARTS, JUST LIKE SEEDS IN GOOD SOIL.

What a world, what a world

by Megan Carter

*What a world, what a world,
 whirling and twirling,
 twisting and turning, spinning in space,
 God with his finger
 brings order from chaos -
 mountains and seas all put in place.
 Man, the peak of all his creation,
 awakes to a world full of beauty and grace,
 walks in the garden with God his creator -
 fellowship sweet as they meet face to face.*

*What a world, what a world,
 whirling and twirling,
 twisting and turning, peace now has gone.
 Ignoring his Lord,
 bringing chaos from order,
 fellowship broken, man now all alone.
 It's his world, not our world -
 he has come to reclaim it,
 restoring communion foolishly lost.
 Our Saviour, Redeemer,
 with undeserved grace,
 brings us back to the fold
 through the work of his cross.*

NORTH CADBURY & DISTRICT GARDENING CLUB

We generally meet in North Cadbury Village Hall, 7.30pm start on the 3rd Wednesday of the month.

Recent events have been the shared supper evening in the village hall in June and the visit to the wonderful Iford Manor Gardens near Bradford-on-Avon in July.

On the 13th August we are meeting at 2.00pm for a cream tea and "My Garden" photographic competition (bring up to 3 photos of your garden), the winners of which will be used to create our 2023 Gardening Calendar for sale in the autumn.

We're also very much looking forward to September's evening meeting – Susannah Applegate of Polden Wines, Somerset will be talking to us on the subject of "English Wine and Vineyards". She will be bringing samples and produce to buy.

We always welcome guests and new members – small non-member fee of £2 for meetings which includes tea/coffee and biscuits.

Please contact Susie Dugdale if you'd like to know more.
